

4th Annual (Net)Working Conference on Women & Literacy

Threads of Experience
Creative Spaces for Women's Learning

March 9 – March 10, 2007

Northeastern University
Boston, Massachusetts

CONFERENCE FEATURES

- ~ Interactive Workshops ~
- ~ Exhibits & Resource Sharing ~
- ~ Student Gatherings ~
- ~ Research & Policy Discussions ~
- ~ Networking Opportunities ~
- ~ Community Building ~
- ~ Arts & Reflection Spaces ~
- ~ Women's Perspectives • Celebration of Student Writings ~
- ~ Panel Presentations on Women-Centered Programming • Learning from Each Other ~
- ~ Annual WE LEARN Membership Meeting ~
Fun & Re-Energizing!

Keynote Speaker: Antonia Darder

Antonia Darder is professor of Educational Policy Studies and Latino/a Studies at the University of Illinois, Urbana/Champaign and internationally recognized for her contributions as a radical educator. Her current work focuses on comparative studies of racism, class, gender, and society. Her teaching examines cultural and global issues in education with an emphasis on identity, language, and popular culture, as well as the foundations of critical pedagogy, Latino & Latina studies, and social justice theory. Antonia has also been active in a variety of Latino/Chicano grassroots efforts tied to educational rights, worker's rights, bilingual education, women's issues, and immigrant rights.

Pre-Conference Seminar

The Impact of Violence on Learning:
Building Connections to Deepen Understanding

March 8, 2007
9:30 – 4:30

For seminar details, contact
jenny@jennyhorsman.com

Early-Bird Registration Deadline:

February 2, 2007
(15% discount)

WE LEARN Membership & ABE Student Rates Available

- Conference Hotel Rates Available •
- Light Breakfast & Lunch included • Wheelchair accessible •
- ASL interpretation available with pre-arrangement •

To download registration details and form, directions, & regular updates go to:
www.litwomen.org/welearn.html

To receive more information contact:
Mev Miller, Ed.D., Director | 401-383-4374 | welearn@litwomen.org
182 Riverside Ave., Cranston, RI 02910