We need both local and national organizers. ○ Community Building & Membership The success and viability of WE LEARN depends on the participation and creativity of our membership. This committee will develop and support annual membership drives. This committee also supports: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ABE Student Leadership Support & Development • Regional Support Networks We encourage members to organize regionally to do local work and to keep the national WE LEARN Board up-to-date on local concerns. ○ Curriculum and Resources Development We encourage learners & teachers to find, collect, evaluate women-centered literacy and curriculum materials to build the Resources Section of our website. Reviews of new materials, lesson plans, evaluations and so on are welcomed and appreciated. ○ Fundraising & Grant Writing WE LEARN invites you to help us build the financial resources of WE LEARN to insure our sustainability. Fundraising, grantwriting and other creative solutions needed. ○ Newsletter Some of this work includes: writing articles, doing interviews, reviewing resource materials, highlighting current policy or research of importance to our members, editing or proofreading, seeking artwork, helping with layout and design...and more... ○ Research and Policy This work group will explore gender-based differences in learning and make recommendations about resources on policy, legislation, & research links to add to our website. ○ Technology & Communications In addition to creating content & design for the website, this committee will explore ways to broaden our communications through blogs, internet surveys, wiki, and other forms of communication technology. ○ Women's Perspectives Student Writing Initiative The activities of this group include: fundraising for the annual issue, promoting the publication to teachers and students to encourage student writing, finding or producing illustrations for the issue, designing and laying out the issue, proofreading, and, most importantly, reading student writing for selection in the publication. ○ Please send me information about how to get elected to the WE LEARN Board of Directors.
